

GREAT CHANCES FOR SALT LAKE

American Smelting & Refining
Official Talks of Business
Openings in Nevada.

MERCHANTS SHOULD WAKE

PLENTY OF TRADE IF THEY GET BUSY.

S. W. Eccles, vice president of the American Smelting and Refining company of New York; William Sproule, traffic manager of the company; Willard E. Morse, member of the executive committee of the company, accompanied by several directors of the eastern corporation, arrived in Salt Lake yesterday afternoon from a tour of inspection of the American company's plants through the West. "Salt Lake merchants should realize more fully than they do the vast opportunity that awaits them commercially in Nevada," said Mr. Morse. "There are a large number of mining camps out there that are getting ready to ship in immense quantities of machinery, and while you hear Salt Lake on every side, I believe if your merchants were better known there is practically no limit to the business they could secure."

The new Western Pacific road will touch the Elly country and there is no reason why freight rates cannot be adjusted in a manner that will put Salt Lake merchants on a fair competitive basis with the merchants of the coast cities for the mining machinery and supply business of that section of the country.

NEW YORKERS "GETTING ON"

Are Now Studying Mining Stocks
With Intelligence Before Investing, Says Hudgins.

"Western mining promoters will have to set up pretty early in the morning from now on to sell eastern capitalists any gold bricks in Nevada mines, or interest in any more wildcat schemes for getting rich over night."

This is the impression Houdler Hudgins, the Elly mine owner and publisher of the White Pine Times of that place, has received of Eastern financiers during the last few weeks. Mr. Hudgins arrived in Salt Lake last night from New York and is at the Knutsford. The Elly publisher was formerly a newspaper man in the Eastern metropolis.

"Eastern men who have money to invest are evidencing the greatest interest in the wonderful development of Nevada and Utah mines," he said yesterday. "They are getting the mining fever as few westerners ever got it, but at the same time I find that they are becoming familiar with what is good and what is bad mining security. About the most difficult thing I can imagine for a mining promoter to do right now would be to go to New York and try to sell a little mining security that wasn't just right. They are getting onto the ins and outs of the mining game very rapidly."

"I left New York on election day and the town was wild with excitement. I believe the majority of Hearst's own people are pretty well satisfied with the result of the election in spite of their leader's defeat."

Mr. Hudgins will leave Salt Lake for Elly today.

HOTELS HAVE BUSY DAY.

Trains on Time and Tourist Business
Is Heavy.

Yesterday was the best tourist day Salt Lake hotels have had for two weeks past. Trains are running on something like schedule time again and arrivals are increasing daily.

The heaviest business is arriving on the eastern trains and consists of tourists going through to California from the east to spend the coming winter. Yesterday Rev. Frederick Jefferson, of Sydney, Australia, and Rev. Philip Cochran, of London, England, were guests at the Wilson, en route to Los Angeles and Sydney. At the Knutsford M. Routwell, a member of the United States Geological Survey commission, was registered for the day.

HAD A CLOSE CALL.

"A dangerous surgical operation, involving the removal of a malignant ulcer, as large as my hand, from my daughter's hip, was prevented by the application of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says A. C. Stichel of Millets, W. Va. "Persistent use of the Salve completely cured it." Cures Cuts, Burns and Injuries, 25c at Z. C. M. I. drug department.

LABORERS' CASES NOW IN COURT

Agent for Conduit Working Men Files Suit Against Contractors and City.

The troubles of the laborers employed on the Cottonwood conduit by Showell Bros. & Belcher, sub-contractors, who claimed that they did not receive their pay for the months of September and October, will be aired in the district court.

A suit was filed yesterday against Showell Bros. & Belcher, P. J. Moran, the Utah Savings & Trust company and Salt Lake City, by E. D. Hoshimoto, a labor contractor, to recover $2,658.50 and costs. The plaintiff alleges that Moran was given a contract by the city to construct the Big Cottonwood conduit, and that he sublet the contract to Showell Bros. & Belcher.

Prior to sub-letting the contract, Moran is alleged to have given a bond with the Utah Savings & Trust company as surety for the proper performance of the work, and a clause in this contract and bond provided for the withholding of pay in the event that payment was not made for labor and material.

The plaintiff alleges that he has had performed on this work labor to the value of $2,658.50 between Sept. 1 and Oct. 25, and that though he has frequently demanded payment of the amounts due, payment has not been made. He specifies in the complaint that he believes about $2,500 is due to Moran on the contract, and asks that the city be restrained from paying this amount until the matter is settled.

At the time of the outbreak of the laborers when they made their demand for their wages, The Herald told their story.

SUIT AGAINST B. X. SMITH.

Court Is Asked to Compel Administrator to Keep Agreement Made.

Louis O. Ensign filed suit in the district court yesterday against Henry X. Smith, administrator of the estate of Daniel Eyer, deceased, to enforce an agreement made between the plaintiff and Eyer in January, 1903.

The plaintiff alleges that Eyer agreed to sell to the plaintiff a piece of land for $2,200, and that a part payment was made and other payments were made according to the agreement, but that the administrator refuses to give title to the land.

In another court of the same complaint Ensign claims that he and E. Clark entered into a similar agreement, and the same cause of action is alleged. The price of this property was specified at $2,600.

CRIMINAL CALENDAR SET.

Preliminary Hearing of Registration
Cases Scheduled for Next Week.

The cases of Frank Westland, Virgil DeBroth and Beula Leon, charged with fraudulent registration, have been set for preliminary hearing before City Judge Whitaker for 10 o'clock in the morning of Nov. 20.

Other cases that were set for hearing yesterday were the following: Charles Hawley, attempted criminal assault, and E. C. Henderson, criminal assault, 10 o'clock next Thursday morning; Francis G. Luke, James Luke, Charles Durand and Thomas Kane, charged with conspiracy, 10 o'clock on the morning of Nov. 21.

DIVORCES ARE GRANTED.

Mismatched Couples Set Free and Given
Another Chance.

A number of divorce cases were disposed of by Judge Charles W. Morse in the district court yesterday. Laura M. Gillon was granted a divorce from Henry E. Gillon, in default of the defendant to appear and answer the complaint. The plaintiff was awarded the custody of the minor child.

Victoria Fitzgerald was granted a divorce from Henry J. Fitzgerald. The plaintiff is granted the custody of two minor children and is also given $20 permanent alimony and $50 for attorney's fees.

George M. Scheussler was granted a divorce from Maude M. Scheussler on default of the defendant to appear. Description is the charge in the complaint. The defendant lives in Chicago.

PASSENGER ASKS DAMAGES.

Says Window of Coach Fell, Injuring
Her to Extent of $5,700.

Susan Felix filed suit against the Rio Grande railroad yesterday to recover damages in the sum of $5,700 and costs for injuries which she alleges she suffered while a passenger on the defendant company's road between Denver and Salt Lake City.

She alleges that she purchased a ticket for $20, and while riding in the coach, which she alleges was not in repair, a window fell upon her with such force that her left hand and wrist were badly bruised and bruised, and she also suffered severe injuries about the neck and chest.

She asks for $500 for medical attendance, $50, which she alleges is the amount of income she has lost by reason of the injury, and $5,000 for personal injury, shock and suffering.

Telephone Case Submitted.

Arguments were submitted in the supreme court yesterday in the case of the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company, appellant, against the Utah Independent Telephone company. The suit was originally brought in the district court by the Bell company to restrain the independent company from using the same numbers in its telephone exchange as those used by the Bell company in designating the various departments of the company's office service.
